I have contacted the attorney Mr. Patrick Parker in our Office of General Counsel who has been assigned to the appeal. Below I have provided his answer:

"It has taken awhile to get docketing materials together. I anticipate that happening soon. Once that is done the ALJ (Administrative Law Judge) will schedule a call to set the matter for trial."

You may contact him directly at Patrick.parker@tn.gov for any questions about the appeal.

Thank you.

Hello Mr Lee,

Just following up to see if there is any additional information on court dates for those that have written appeals regarding the Byhalia Oil Pipeline?

Thanks for any insight.
